

EVENT

Achieve the good life!

This exciting Winter Workshop, to be held in Bridgetown will assist small landholders to successfully respond to declining rainfall, and increasing temperatures and costs.

10th - 12th July 2009

Practical presentations & ideas to answer your questions

Maintain your wellbeing as Small Landholders ... the wellbeing of your land, crops and livestock ... and the wellbeing of WA agriculture

Scroll down to see the extensive program on offer!

Own, or thinking of purchasing a small landholding? BE THERE!

Register NOW
And SAVE 20% Registration from only $60 (single) and $100 (couple) for the full event.

SPECIAL

Proudly supported by:

Proudly Hosted By:

PROGRAM

Sowing the seeds of sustainability!

Why not book in Friday night and join us for dinner

Just $25 for two courses

Saturday AM

Climate change
Water conservation
Implications of peak oil
Maintaining soil fertility
Composting wastes
Optimising financial returns

Saturday PM

Field Visits
(choose from)

Annual crops / garden vegetables
Pastures
Remnant vegetation and biodiversity

Optional - Saturday Night Dinner
Three course meal with entertainment and courtesy bus for only $35/person

SUNDAY PM

Field Visits
(choose from)

Livestock
Farm Forestry
Perennial Crops
(Orchards/Vineyards)

Ask an Expert Session
(all your questions answered)

SUNDAY AM

Livestock, Weeds, Feral Animals
and Food Safety

The Emission Trading Scheme
and its effects on Small Landholders

Property Fire Management

CALL

Christine Hewitt
(08) 6262 4958

For full program, information
on pricing ... or to register

To visit the website

Click Here

EVENT

