

NLIS MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS FOR WESTERN AUSTRALIA

As of 1 July 2005, ALL cattle will be identified as set out below.

Direct to abattoirs, from property of birth ↓	Direct to Live-export via depot, from property of birth ↓	Cattle sold to other producers, saleyards, feedlots, or moving from a property that is not the property of their birth.
Transaction Tag (Tail or Ear tag) Minimum requirement  ↓	Transaction Ear Tag (Ear tag with PIC on it) Minimum requirement  ↓	NLIS electronic device required (ear tag or bolus) White for homebred cattle Orange for bought in cattle  ↓
NVD/waybill with PIC travels with stock ↓	NVD/waybill with PIC travels with stock ↓	NVD/waybill with PIC travels with stock ↓
PIC Validated at works NLIS compliant	PIC Validated by depot NLIS compliant	NLIS device read, PIC validated and database notified by agent or purchaser NLIS compliant

For further information on NLIS in Western Australia contact:

NLIS Team
Department of Agriculture, Bunbury
Phone: (08) 97806100
Email: nlis@agric.wa.gov.au